YYC CONFERENCE HELD ON MARCH 25TH – MARCH 30TH, 2012 AT THE MUTI-MEDIA UNIVERSITY HOTEL AND CONFERENCE CENTRE

INTRODUCTION

Yes Youth Can (YYC) is a youth empowerment and county development association that seeks to bring together youth from different regions of the country with the aim of developing their counties. Yes Youth Can' supports youth-led recovery and development in areas that experienced post-election violence or are at risk to experience violent conflict in the future. The program aims to encourage youth voice, youth entrepreneurship, and youth leadership. The YYC conference consists of the National Bunge Association Conference and the County Bunge Forum. The National Bunge Association (NBA) Conference is a gathering of a total of 52 County Presidents representing 26 counties from across the country, who approve the structure and constitution of the association, electing their leaders and planning the way forward for the association.

THE MAASAI MARA MARATHON

Preamble:

This was an event organized by Big Box Creatives. The venue of the Marathon was to be the Olchorro Oirua Conservancy which covered approximately 17,000 acres and was privately managed in the Masai Mara National Reserve. This marathon started and finished outside the gate of Fairmont Mara Safari Club and covered a 21 km loop around the Olchorro Orua, Wuanga, Koluo and Ngerende hills. Athletics Kenya had already sanctioned the Half Marathon and the event was slated for Saturday, 20th November 2010.

THE USANIFU NATIONAL CREATIVE ECONOMY

Preamble:

The National Creative Conference was a culmination of similar regional conferences held all over the country with the objective of having conversations with the creative industry from across the country to understand how the government can work with them to help identify, nurture and promote their talents. The need to do this was informed by various presentations by artists that the government had not done enough to support the sector. It was also necessitated by the realization that the creative arts sector presents a new and indeed lucrative horizon for wealth generation and employment creation.

Preamble:

The 3rd session of the specialized technical committee on youth culture & sport held in Nairobi at the KICC. The theme for the 3rd session was “Role of African Youth in Building a Strong Culture towards Fighting against Corruption.” Big Box, under Ngoma Tucheze was tasked to propose, create and execute an executive closing cocktail event. The specific objectives of the third session of the STC on Youth Culture and Sports are to: a. Update the ministers on the status of on-going programmes, and on the performance of RECs and Member States in Youth, Culture and Sports sectors; b. Discuss operationalization and implementation of AU Summit Decisions relevant to Youth Culture and Sports sectors on the continent. The theme was an African night, Kenyan style.

THE DEAF OLYMPICS 2021

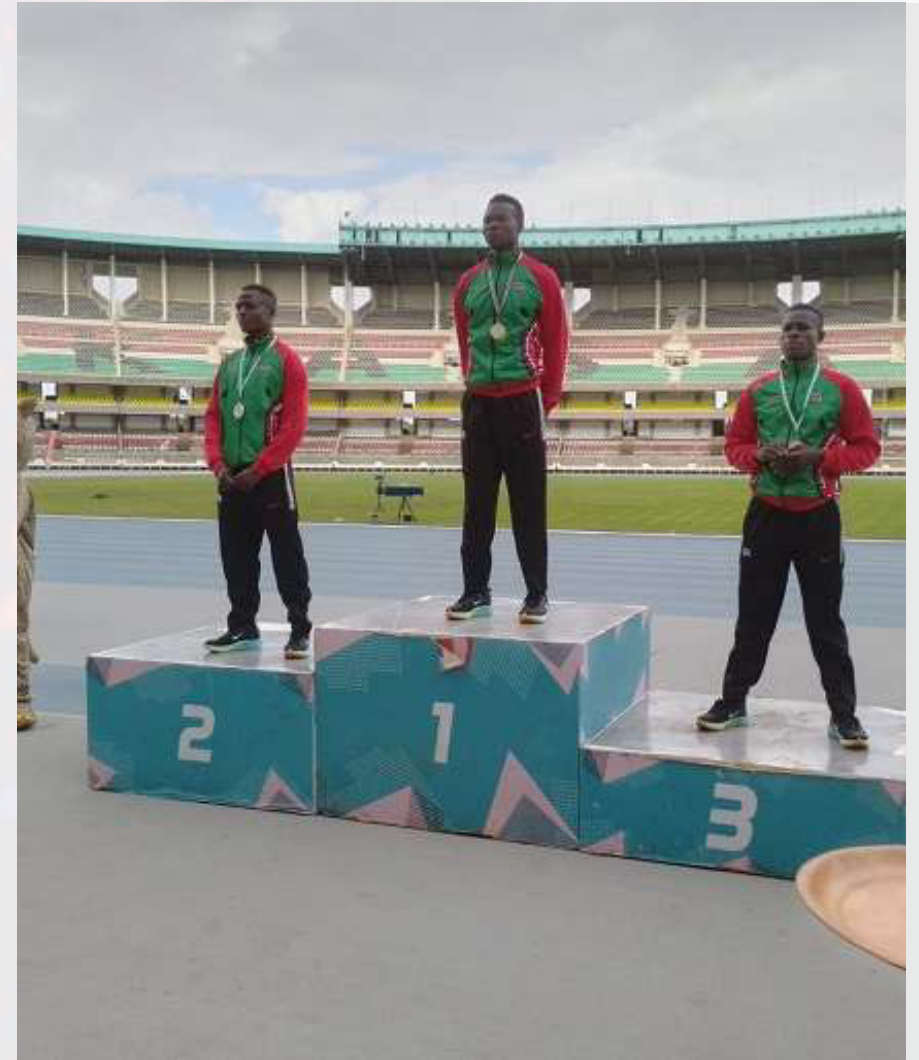

Ministry of Sports and Culture /National Deaf Olympics committee 16th to 22nd of September 2021

We were honored to be contracted by the Deaf Olympics committee to provide comprehensive event support services, including:

- Curating the opening and closing ceremonies
- Organizing entertainment and event break performances

The Deaflympics, also known as the Deaf Olympics, are a prestigious series of multi-sport events sanctioned by the International Olympic Committee, where elite deaf athletes from around the world compete.

In September 2021, over 25 nations gathered in Nairobi for the Africa Deaf Athletics Championship, held from September 16th to 22nd. It marked the first time Kenya hosted this competition, with the goal of filling the stadium and creating an electrifying atmosphere that resonated with the athletes and spectators alike. Participating countries included South Africa, Algeria, Egypt, Ethiopia, as well as neighboring Rwanda and Uganda.

TRANSFORMING BLOOD TRANSFUSION AND TRANSPLANTATION SERVICES FOR IMPROVED HEALTH OUTCOMES IN KENYA AND THE REGION

Ministry of Health / Kenya National Blood & Organ Transplant Service 22nd-24th of June 2022, Windsor Kiambu, Kenya

The three-day hybrid conference focused on advancing blood transfusion and organ transplant science and practice. Key areas of discussion included policy, regulation, and leadership at the stewardship level; quality, safety, and efficacy at the service delivery level; and systems-level management of health technologies, products, and supply chains. The role of strategic public and private partnerships in supporting these efforts was also highlighted.

H.E. President Uhuru Kenyatta was the chief guest at the opening of the conference, alongside key participants such as leaders from the Ministry of Health, policymakers, health practitioners, young researchers, medical students, civil society, and county government representatives.

This conference is expected to accelerate policy and practice in transfusion and transplant services, contributing to the fast-tracking of Universal Health Coverage (UHC), one of Kenya's Big Four Agenda priorities.
